Training for Ethnic Minorities

April 2022 – March 2023

The Employees Retraining Board (ERB) is a statutory body which provides training courses and services to eligible employees aged 15 or above with educational attainment at sub-degree level or below. Eligible employees of non-Chinese origin in Hong Kong are also one of the special target groups of ERB which assists them in gaining job opportunities through appropriate training and employment services, so that they can integrate into the society for the well-being of themselves and their families.

ERB offers both full-time and half-day / evening training courses free-of-charge to unemployed or low-income persons. For full-time training courses, placement follow-up services including career counselling, job matching and referral will be provided to help graduates land jobs and develop career.
