As the district-based window to the courses and services of the Employees Retraining Board (ERB), the ERB Service Centre offers diversified self-help and support services to those with training and employment needs.

The Service Centre provides an overview of ERB courses as well as information on courses offered by training bodies in the respective district. The Service Centre answers general enquiries on training courses and provides enrolment service for courses offered by ERB.

Our Position

- To serve as the district-based window to the courses and services of ERB to promote one-stop training and support services.
- To provide just-in-time and diversified services to meet the various skills upgrading needs of local population.
- To assist those in need to access the latest ERB courses and labour market information so as to facilitate them in employment.

Service Targets

- People aged 15 or above with educational attainment at sub-degree level or below, and with training and employment needs.

Service Highlights

1. Get Prepared for a Better Direction

■ Course Information Corner

The Service Centre provides an overview of ERB courses as well as comprehensive information on courses offered by training bodies in respective districts.

■ “ERB Training Net” Course Search Terminal

The public can obtain information on ERB courses, training centres, services and activities as well as register for “Training Consultancy Service” through the “ERB Training Net” course search terminal in the Service Centre.

■ Course Enquiry and Direct Enrolment

The public can enquire on ERB courses and submit application forms of ERB courses.

■ Training Consultancy Service

By assessing the training needs and job aspirations of the users through face-to-face interviews or video conferencing, training consultants would give advice to the users on suitable training courses and assist in applying for ERB courses. For enquiry or appointment, please call or visit the Service Centre.

■ Training and Career Needs Test

Users can identify their career pursuits and training needs through completing the self-help online test, so as to have a preliminary understanding of their career aspirations and assist them in selecting suitable training courses.

2. Learning for Self Development

■ Self-learning Facilities

The multi-media computer facilities and reading corner are provided to facilitate self-learning and continuous upgrading.

■ Course and Industry Seminars (Including Taster Courses)

Seminars hosted by industry experts or experienced tutors are organised from time to time to introduce the job requirements and work nature of different industries. Taster courses are offered to those who are interested to enrol in selected ERB courses.

■ Workshops on Job Search Skills, Generic Skills and Specific Topics

Members can enhance their generic skills through participation in workshops such as workplace Putonghua, English, IT applications and personal attributes. Workshops on job search, interviewing and communication skills, and relevant labour ordinances are also offered regularly.

■ Mutual Support and Study Groups

Mutual support groups give advice on employment and training to members, as well as invite members of different industries to share experience and market information.
