To Whom it May Concern:

This letter is written in support of Ms. Cheung, who is the agent that introduced a very capable Nanny to our family.

We first got to know Ms. Cheung from Smartbabycare back in June when we started looking for a professional Nanny. Ms. Cheung then looked into the matter and matched us with a number of possible candidates.

During the search process, Ms. Cheung was extremely patient and listened to our concerns. Eventually, she was able to match us with one of their contacts, who turned out to be a highly professional nanny.

In summary, we consider Ms. Cheung to be a highly competent agent, who completes her job in a professional manner. We have been very fortunate to have her service. We would recommend her to you highly.

Sincerely,

Chan
